Events

- Last week, I attended NY Intergroup Corrections and Treatment dinner dance (known as Antun's)
- This past weekend I had the pleasure of attending the Queens County Share-A-Day. It was a meaningful experience, not just because of the workshops though "The IF Trap" was especially impactful but also because I got to reconnect with someone I hadn't seen since I was counting days at Greenwood. That's the unspoken charm of these events: the connections and spiritual reminders they bring.
- This weekend coming, I'll be attending the New York State Informational Workshop.
- I have other county Share-A-Days on my calendar. If yours isn't there yet, please email me or make sure it's on the SENY calendar so I can plan to attend and support if I'm available.

A few announcements from the Delegate's page: www.aaseny.org/delegate

- GSO Retrofitting: Starting August 11, GSO will be operating remotely for 10–12 weeks during their office consolidation (moving two floors into one). More information, including a letter from our General Manager and the history behind this decision, is posted on the Delegate's page.

- Grapevine Non-Trustee Director Posting: A new service opportunity has been posted for a non-trustee director position on the Grapevine Board. This is a separate role from the non-trustee director position for AAWS. Details are available online.
- 90-Year Souvenir Book: This beautiful historical collection is now available for purchase. Many people received one at the International Convention, but they are now on sale for the wider Fellowship.
- Convention Workshop Recordings: If you heard about powerful workshops and wish you could have attended, recordings are now available in packages (e.g., 5 or 10 sessions). Just note that after purchase, you'll be able to choose specific workshops by name, but that part happens after checkout—so it's not immediately intuitive.

I continue to update the Delegate's page as quickly as I can after reviewing new information. Please check it regularly, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions.
